paris venus was feeling old lonely fat and depressed when senior friendfinder popped up on her computer screen a dating site for old people the lowest tier of membership was free so she filled out a profile listing her age as sixty one and noting she was widowed for sex she wrote when i get a chance before adding okay female for weight she said generously curvy she also started sharing some of her deepest thoughts and daily adventures through something called a blog hundreds of people started reading her posts and she even started to meet some fellow bloggers in person when she was blindsided by a diagnosis of pancreatic cancer the former recluse did not crawl back into her shell instead she embraced being a woman who enjoys lifesomeone with supportive friends and a sister to love and someone who learned that its never too late to choose to be happy join an older woman who discovers the joys of the internet while refusing to let cancer extinguish her newfound zest for life in journeys of a parisdreamer this love thang the first poetry novel to be written about eleven friends on the path to accepting finding and forgiving love in each other s eyes each poem chapter signifies their voice feeling and emotions expressing what love is will the path they ve chosen be too much for even them to handle she s a poet he s a momma s boy she is on the path of self destruction will curiosity kill the cat he needs to grow up he doesn't listen he is a nightmare waiting to expel she is mischievous and of course is she the best kept secret where there is a path lessons are learned and in each situation inside their sister circle and the man's club can all be forgiven or should they just let sleeping dogs lie the dead mother brings together original essays in honour of André Green written by distinguished psychoanalysts the collection develops the theme of his most famous paper of the same title and describes the value of the dead mother to other areas of clinical interest psychic reality borderline phenomena passions and identification the concept of the dead mother describes a clinical phenomenon sometimes difficult to identify but always present in a substantial number of patients it describes a process by which the image of a living and loving mother is transformed into a distant figure a toneless practically inanimate dead parent in reality the mother remains alive but she has psychically died for the child this produces a depression in the child who carries these feelings within him into adult life as the experience of the loss of the mother's love is followed by the loss of meaning in life nothing makes sense any more for the child but life seems to continue under the appearance of normality the dead mother is a valuable contribution to literature on psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic approaches to grief loss and depression
